

Videography & Video Streaming Seattle Legal Videographer: Professional Videography Services for the Legal Sector Headquartered in Seattle, Washington, YOM: Full Service Court Reporting is a legal videography and deposition services company that is dedicated to assisting litigation attorneys. Our Seattle legal videographers use state-of-the-art equipment, including the latest cameras, microphones, and professional backdrops to create legal videos of the utmost quality. Our legal videography team is professional, highly experienced, and accommodating. Some highlights of hiring YOM for your legal videography needs include the following:

- Unmatched professionalism: Seasoned legal videographers
- Top-notch equipment: State-of-the art cameras, microphones, and backdrops
- Video/text synchronization: Video recordings of depositions synchronized with transcripts
- Statewide and nationwide service: We work with clients in Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, Federal Way, Bellingham, Kennewick, and more

YOM provides complete video capabilities. We can synchronize a video file with the court reporter's transcript, delivering the synchronization in a standalone program or in a file format that plays in Sanction, Trial Director, and other industry programs. Synchronized depositions enable you to easily review testimony as well as create and export video clips that contain both the video and the relevant text.

Our video technicians are trained in the very best quality control processes, ensuring that your media is processed properly and on time. Call us for more information about our legal videography services for depositions in Washington.
